About this event

The NAA NorCal Region's Meet the Arbitrator Conference is your chance to participate in interactive discussions in small groups with labor arbitrators and other advocates. Meet arbitrators whose names you've only seen on lists and discover how they address substantive and procedural issues. The theme for the 2023 conference is The Current State of Labor Arbitration. MCLE credit will be offered. Morning coffee and lunch are included. This conference is a great value for new advocates and long-time practitioners alike.
